Disaster Relief Update

Southern Baptist Disaster Relief personnel continue to help in the recovery efforts after the May 19-20 tornadoes affected many Oklahoma communities. With command centers stationed in Moore and Shawnee, Disaster Relief units have provided chainsaw teams, chaplains, and feeding units that are supplying meals for volunteers and victims. Along with the hundreds of DR volunteers, many local Baptist churches also are having an impact on their respective communities. If you would like to give a gift to assist the tornado victims today, please use an offering envelope and designate "OK Tornado."

From Our Pastor

Tomorrow is the beginning of Vacation Bible School for the children and Spirit Week for our Junior High and Senior High students. I trust that you have been praying for the staff, the teachers, and the children. Tonight, during our Evening Service, we will have an opportunity to pray specifically for the week of VBS and Spirit Week.

Last November when we adopted our ministry budget for the year, we placed into that budget a part-time salary for an intern to assist in our College ministry. Today, we are pleased to welcome Dustin Curtis to fill that position. Dustin and his wife, April, have been members of our church for about two years. Dustin is a graduate of Union University, in Jackson, TN, and Beeson Divinity School, in Birmingham, AL. He also teaches Bible at a local private school.

Regrettably, we have also received the resignation of one of our staff members. Monica Hornsby, our Preschool Minister, has resigned. I am so very thankful for Monica's leadership, and we will miss her as part of our team.

You will want to make Sunday evening worship a real priority this summer. We are still finalizing some of the plans, but we are working real hard to have a very special schedule this summer. One of the highlights will be three messages from local Christian counselor, Dudley Bienvenu. Dudley will speak on the subject of communication for our evening worship on the second Sunday nights of June, July, and August. The first of these nights will be next Sunday, June 9. I encourage you to come and invite someone to come with you.

If you are our guest, I hope that you will take a moment to fill out the registration card that you will find in your bulletin. You may place that card in the offering plate or take it by the Information Center. In bringing the card to the Information Center, we have a gift for you.

Our worship this morning is entirely focused on the Lord's Supper. We invite all baptized Christians to participate in receiving the elements of the Lord's Supper.

Steve

A Special Message from Our Pastor

The Building Planning Committee of First Baptist Church is a long-range planning committee that is elected by the church each year. This committee is comprised of three sub-committees: a building committee, a financial arrangements committee, and a property purchasing committee. Each committee has distinct responsibilities, while at the same time, they come together for long-range and strategic planning.

The entire committee met in January and approved the expenditure of $25,000 to contract the services of M, G, & A—a church consulting development, design, and building company. This is the same company who did master planning, build design, and construction of the building of our Preschool, Children, and Youth addition back in 2006-07.

Personnel from M, G, & A have met with select staff members and the building sub-committee. Work is progressing. At some point in the future, the Building Planning Committee would hope to bring a motion to the church to entertain prayerfully the proposal to enter into the next phase of our master plan. At this point, focus is being placed on the next phase being the demolition of the current Fellowship Hall/Activities building and rebuilding that space to include a first floor Fellowship Hall and first and second story Adult Education classrooms.

My greatest desire for any proposed building that we might do in the future is to build the building in a spirit of unity and for God's glory. I ask you to join me in praying to this end, and we will keep you posted.
