From Our Pastor

We welcome those who are guests today. Thanks for being with us at First Baptist Church. We look forward to meeting you and making you feel "at home." If you are new to First Baptist, we would like to invite you to come by the Information Center to receive additional information about the ministries of our church. In addition, we would request that you complete the guest registration card found attached to this bulletin, and bring it to the Information Center. We have a gift waiting for you there.

Update on our ALL IN Campaign—In our services today, I will be sharing with you our offering and pledges that we have received to date. As previously noted, we want to include everyone in this initial phase of giving and pledge total. For that reason, the total announced today is a partial total. We will continue to receive pledges and first-fruit offerings through the entire month of October. Our grand total will be announced on the first Sunday of November. For those who have already committed, I say thank you. May God honor your commitment and giving displayed by your faith and obedience! For those who have not yet made a commitment, I urge you to get your commitment card in as soon as possible so that we might rejoice together in the Lord.

New Series Today—This morning I want to begin sharing with you on the topic: I Am First Baptist Church! In the midst of our building campaign, let us not lose sight of the fact that "The People are the Church!" My seed thoughts for this series have been prompted by a book titled, I Am a Church Member, by Dr. Thom Rainer, President and CEO of Lifeway, our publisher of Southern Baptist educational materials. Over the next six messages, I am going to ask you to make a commitment to six principles of church membership. Today, we address the commitment: I will be a functioning church member.

Steve
